The rejection of Claims 1-14 under 35 U.S.C. §103(a) as being unpatentable over Chu et al., U.S. Patent 6,714,412, in view of Brodie et al., U.S. Patent 5,144,811, is respectfully traversed.

The alleged combination of the prior art references does not provide all claim limitations. The alleged combination neither teaches, suggests, nor otherwise predicatively provides for a receptacle in a frame leg for receiving liquid cooling conduits. The receptacle is beneficial for allowing for a rack or switchgear cabinet to be easily assembled, or retrofitted, with a cooling system, while also typically requiring less space within the rack or cabinet for cooling system components.

Favorable reconsideration and withdrawal of this rejection are respectfully requested.

Conclusion

Applicants intend to be fully responsive to the outstanding Office Action, and believe that this Patent Application is now in condition for allowance. If the Examiner detects any issue which the Examiner believes Applicants have not addressed or resolved in this response, the undersigned attorney again requests a telephone interview with the Examiner.

Respectfully submitted,
